Please briefly describe your experience with Motivational Interviewing including the following:

- Describe your initial Motivational Interviewing training experience (e.g., how, when, and who you trained with)
- What type of supervision/coaching have you had in MI clinical practice?
- Have you previously submitted tapes for coding? If so, how many?
- To assess your current level of skill, we ask that you submit an audio recording of a session with a client/ patient for coding and evaluation with this application form. (Please visit our website for detailed instructions and pricing)

Program fees: $125.00 for the one-year membership including program oversight and individual support from Certificate Program Facilitator and Motivational Interviewing Partner, Melissa Gilman.

MITI Coding fees are $35.00 per submitted recording and, if desired, the use of our Simulated Patient/Client service and/or half hour phone coaching each costing $35.00 per session. We recommend that you send a recording every month or two and will help individualize your goals upon request.
